

Cleared Solutions Inc. (CSI) is a trusted provider of highly skilled IT consultants and strategic advisers supporting our nation's most challenging missions

Mission Insight

CSI's commitment to protecting the nation is steadfast and we are intensely focused on the most important technical and analytic challenges facing our intelligence, defense, homeland security, and law enforcement communities.

Many of our consultants have supported the same mission for most of their careers and share their extensive experience with our partners and clients on a daily basis.

We are experienced in mission tradecraft, technology, and processes:

- Collection & Analysis
- Production & Dissemination
- Sharing & Safeguarding
- Discovery & Retrieval
- Classification & Release
- Cybersecurity & Risk Management
- Counterintel & Insider Threat

Technical Expertise

CSI is sought after for our broad, multi-disciplinary technical qualifications and unique and extensive knowledge of complex operational environments.

Many CSI consultants serve as influential strategic advisors to senior decision makers and help clients navigate complex technical, political, and programmatic issues.

We drive towards rapid decision making and high-quality, trusted, and broadly accepted deliverables by emphasizing:

- Leadership
- Agility
- Responsive Communication
- Collaboration
- Coordination
- Objectivity

Enduring Partnerships

CSI maintains numerous corporate partnerships and contract vehicles each uniquely designed to align our consultants with the needs of our partners and clients.

These situational workforce bonds do not simply represent joint corporate interests, but the faces of hard working, mission-focused individuals, each charged to play an important role in the team.

Our consultants thrive in integrated contractor teams where open collaboration with our corporate partners and the government workforce yields targeted, measurable, and mission-oriented results that advantage our nation.
